

Midway “Charity Chili Cook-Off”

Saturday, November 17th - Noon till 3pm

Chili Entry Form

Proceeds help to support the Midway Ministerial Area Association

There is no fee to enter your best Chili recipe(s) into this event! Official Chili Sampling hours will be from Noon till 3pm, contestants must Check in at City Hall and set up by 11:45am to be ready to serve at Noon sharp. Chili cook-off contestants will be assigned a space to set up outside as well as a number for each type of chili to be displayed for voting purposes. Contestants will have access to an electric outlet to serve Chili from a crock-pot. Contestants are required to have at least 6 quarts of each chili entered, and feel free to make more! Up to two Chilis may be entered by each Contestant. Chili Samplers will pay $5.00 to participate in tasting all Chili Recipes. The Midway Business Association will provide the sampling cups, spoons, and napkins. Public Restrooms will be open at City Hall. MBA expects there will be 20 or more chilis entered.

Each contestant entering and serving chili must provide their own:

Serving Ladle, Small Table, Tablecloth, Chair, and Extension Cord.

(Optional) Toppings (cheese, crackers, hot sauce, sour cream...)

MBA will provide sampling cups, spoons, and napkins.

Primary Contact Name
Company or self
Phone
e-mail
Type of chili(s) served (hot, med, mild, spicy, vegetarian.....)

Winners are based on the People’s Choice. Votes will be counted and prizes awarded at 3:30pm. First place will receive $50.00 and a Trophy, 2nd place will receive $30.00 and a Medal, and 3rd place will receive $20.00 and a Medal.

Please register your recipe before November 10th by returning this completed form by email – morganstv01@gmail.com or U.S. Mail to Steve Morgan c/o Kentucky Honey Farms, P.O. Box 4263, Midway, KY 40347. Questions or late registration? – Call Steve @ 859-552-1377 or Doug McDaniel @859-753-0787.

Presented by The Midway Business Association with City Hall staffing assistance by Midway Renaissance members.